CAPTURE OF A BLOCKADE RUNNER.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The prize steamer Juno, a British blockade runner, arrived tonight. She was captured September 22d, off Wilmington, N. C., by the guabook Commodore' after a four hours' chase, during team the Commodore fred thirty-five rounds of shell and shot. The Juna hove overboard part of her cargo of cotton. He is an iron vessel, side-wheel, built at Bristol, England, and is ten years old. Her engines are four hundred horse power. Her cargo consists of two hundred bales of cotton, three tons of tobacco, and a small quantity of turpentine, which, together with the vessel, is valued at $110,000.

REPORTED DEATH OF JOE JOHNSTON.

Reinforcements from the Army of the Potomae on their Way.

Naw York, Sept. 35.—A Nashville dis-patch of the 35d gives a sport from rebel prisoners that Joe Johnston was killed in the late battle.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 36.—The Republican says the President has received giorious news-from Rosecrans, but the details cannot be from Rosserans, but the details cannot be asteted.

The rebel army, from the latest talegrams, has not, it appears, molected Rosserans in his present position. There as in Washington, a general spirit of cheertulness regarding further military movements.

A special to the fest, dated Washington, the 26th, says: The Army of the Potomac is in motion. Transports are loading with great activity, and it is suspected that a considerable body of forces will emberk with as ittle delay as possible. Their destination: sittle delay as possible. Their destination can only be conjectured.

In the meantime, there is great scitrity shown in forwarding troops in another direction. The Government had taken possible of the Baltimore and Ohio Rallroad, and lowed on it. Some important movement is contemplated on the line of this great thoroughlare.

It is very currently said here, and such us, in fact, the purport of the information that we receive from various sources, that the re-inforcements sent off to the Department of Brance, persons the account of the property of inforcements sent off to the Department of Bragg, against Gen. Borecrans, here left Richmont almost defenceless; There is but a bandful of troops left for the accurity of the rebel capital.

The late battle of Chalckmurs would have had a different result if the orders of the Government had been more effectually observed. The Government was aware of the design of the rebels in reinforcing Bragg, namely: To perceive more army by superserved. The Government was ware of the design of the rebols in reinforcing Bragg, namely: To greewhelm out army by superior numbers, and sent a message by tale graph to Gen. Burnside, ordering him to reinforce Rosecrans with the men under his command. Burnside replied that he was on his way to Jonesboro, and would join Rosecrans as soon as he had occupied that place. "The Government then repeated the order in a peremptory manner, ordering him to reinforce Rosecrans immediately. of the troops under Burnside were at Athens. His advance was at Cleveland. The Government is not satisfied with this proceeding of Burnside, and it is yet to be seen what ne-cessity there was for his neglect to obey the order given him in such express terms. New York, Sept. 5.—A Washington spe-cial to the Times says: It appears now that all three of Rosecrans' grand divisions were engaged in the battle in front of Chastianoo-gs, two of which were driven back in con-siderable disorder.

Gen. Rosecrans, in his dipatches, loopules the loss of the battle to disobedience of orders on the part of Gen. McCook, who falled ders on the part of Gen. Accook, who halled to occupy an important position assigned him by Resecrans. Had he done as ordered, Rose-crans' olphalon is that the battle would have resulted in a splendid Union victory. By ex-tending his forces too much, the enemy were enabled to penetrate Rosecrans' line. Great anxioty exists him, in army circles, for the safety of Burnside. In order to rein-force Rosecrans, his only safe course would

1. Gen. Negley moved from Stephens' Gap on the morning of the 10th inst., strictly in compliance with orders.

2. Gen. Rosecrans himself believed it practicable to scire and hold the gaps in Pigeon Monntain, with a comparatively small force.

8. Rebels have themselves admitted since, inst it was their intention to surround and crush Gen. Negley, which they were only prevented from doing by he wise and timely withdrawal to Stephens' Gap.

4. Deservers heard their officers my size the fight that they (the robels) ought to have captured us considering the force they had.

5. Parts at least of Leddell's and Felk's brigades of Clayburne's division, were actually negged in the affair.

6. Thirty-three graves of rebels were found near the stone fence, from behind which members of the 19th and 34th Illinois, the lat Wisconsin, and other regiments, poured into the advancing rebels such terrible volleys. From this were insufficed in the cuttre rebel loss was at least two hundred, tilled and wonded.

The expedition of Gen. Herron has been heard from. He has cleared the country between Rover and Port Hadson of the guerilla parties that have been firing upon transports, and has driven the guerilla Green to the west of the Atchafayla River, with considerable loss. Among other captures was an egent of the Confederate Government, who had a large amount of money and important papers. An officer of his command states that General Herron is quite sick, and will be brought to New Orleans.

The order of Gen. Banks taking the restriction off trade is received with great satisfaction.

The health of the troops is all that could be desired, and is owing to the strict sanitary regulations enforced by Gen. Banks. THE RUSSIAN PLEET.

His employers sent him to Washington, where they used a little sharp practice to keep him from being known as their correspondent. They hired him out to the New Tork Breald as an army correspondent of that sheet for the Potomes army. He passes in Washington, and at Meade's headquarters, as a Hereld correspondent, and by this means preserves his eace, as the Washington libelier of the Union came, for the Chicago rebelptint. He is just suited for the sheet for which he writes, and is the favorite correspondent of that concern. We suspect that he is connected with the rubel upy gang about Washington and Baltimors. His letters show that he is fully in agraphy with them.

The Arkansas Union Regiments.
Since Northwestern Arkansas has been occupied by Federal troops, two full regiments, one of cavalry and one of infantry, have been enlisted into the Union service. Hundreds of individuals have also been enlisted in the various Kansas regiments along the border. The 2d Arkansas cavalry are now being recentled.

The State Street Railway Break.
Within the past forinight we have received a score of communications complaining of the condition of the street railway track, or rather the non-existence of any track on Twenty-second street (Ringgold Place.) We would suggest that the more direct way of communicating with the Super-intendent would be to call at his office in person. We inners the following at the request of a number of tired South-siders.
